dB

understated elegance

dB is a Franco-German company focused on the design and production of unique high quality leather luxury goods inspired by the Argentinean Polo playing world.

dB Origins

Authenticity, understated elegance and strength are the core values from which the brand drew its inspiration, illustrating a lifestyle that Argentina spreads around the world.

dB Backstage in 2009, Alexandra de Bruné, a professional German polo player, created an unbranded polo equipment, apparel and accessory line.

Her expertise and intuitive sense for esthetic design and uniqueness, ensures the highest quality of each piece.

Her unique polo bag and pink polo belt were an overnight success which lead her to launch a brand using her own initials „dB“.

Personalize your dB product

1. select your type of leather (LONDON-natural / HAVANA-dark brown)
2. choose your color (14 different colors)
3. apply your initials (4 letters maximum / embroidered or leather)
